American Armory and Blue Book.

The shield is surmounted by a helmet. The helmet is topped by a torse, and the crest emerges from the torse.

The shield is quartered - a son has taken the arms of his father and put it in the 1st and 4th quarters and the arms of his mother's family and put it in the second and third quarters. The red is gules; it is considered to be the most noble of all colors. It denotes boldness and valor. Azure is for blue, representing the color of the pure sky; and it implies justice, humility, loyalty, and perseverance. Blue is said to represent heaven, which is the highest of all things created, the tribunal of God, and the ever-lasting mansion of the blessed.

Over two centuries ago eight brothers of Scotch-Irish Extraction, migrated to America from Scotland. These brothers, after leaving the ship, settled in different sections of the country so tradition goes.

- 1-1 Calvin Carlisle, born 1735, remained in Scotland.
- 2-1 Dr. John G. Carlisle, one of the brothers, born 1770, settled in North Carolina, married Nancy Sims, and lived in Burke County, North Carolina. Issue:

 - 3-2 Robert Carlisle
 - 3-3 Joe Carlisle
 - 3-4 Polly Carlisle
 - 3-5 Abigale Carlisle
 - 3-6 Dollie Carlisle
 - 3-7 Sookie Carlisle

Several children died at birth or lived only a short time.

When John S. Carlisle was about grown, he left home in North Carolina, and went to find his brother who had previously left home and gone to Tennessee. When John arrived in the vicinity of where Joe was supposed to be found, he learned that Joe had recently left Tenn., for his old home back in North Carolina.

While John was roaming around from place to place he met a family by the name of Witty. Mr. Witty had three daughters, named Matilda, Mealey, and Sallie. While John was living with the Witty family, he fell in love with and married Mealey. After John married and while living in La Grange, Tenn., a place near by, he returned to N.C. to visit his old home and bring his mother back with him, as his father had died and she was dependent. It had been sixteen years since John had gone from home or had seen his people except his brothers.

As there were no railroads John was forced to make the trip on horseback. He left Tenn. with $300 in silver and an old cap pistol. It took him four weeks to make the trip. The country was thinly settled where he had to travel, also, it was very mountainous, and there were roving bands of robbers to dread.

One night he stopped at a house to ask if he could spend the night. He observed some Malatto boys in the yard but thought nothing of it until after dark. When the husband came in he proved to be a negro. During the night he overheard a conversation between two of the boys that caused him to be afraid. They planned to waylay and rob him as he left the next morning.

Our Family Lineage

Early the next morning John left the place and found the boys on the wayside waiting for him. He began talking to them and kept his eyes on them so they did not attempt to rob him. He returned with his mother in a few weeks and made the long trip all right.

John S. Carlisle and Mealey Witty came into possession of and settled on the level, later owned by Annie Adams, now owned by Maude Adams, and reared most of their children there. Issue:

3-1 John S. and Mealey Witty had twelve children to grow up and have children of their own.

The Carlisle Family

Three or four children died young.

Jasper and several brothers went to the war. Jasper lost an arm in service, but one boy refused to go and fight. He left home and lived in a cave over on .11 Creek. He would put on a dress and a bonnet during the day and plow two oxen. As there were few men at home, it was not unusual to see a woman plowing in a field. He lived in a cave until the war was over.

Information by Bill Lafferty

- 5-4 Obediah B. Carlisle b. March 20, 1871; died Aug. 11, 1953, was an ambitious man; above the average in personality and ambition. He did a lot of traveling in his work of teaching school in a number of places in Ala. and Miss., preached when he was called, was a farmer and a salesman. He also had a good sense of humor.

Years ago O.B. went to Lamar Co., to preach. One night there was a knock at the door. O.B. opened the door and found a man standing. He introduced himself and told O.B. they could not keep a teacher to teach their children. They had torn up the piano, broken out the window, broken down the desks, and had almost ruined the building. He said he had heard that O.B. could teach the school. It was decided he would be there the next morning. O.B. went up the pathway which was not far from the school. On his way he cut two big sticks. He could hear the noise before he reached the building. When he was close enough he hit across the outside wall with a stick, went around to the door and hit down on the floor with a stick, everything became silent. Finally, "Who are you?" came from a big husky twenty-one year old. O.B. looked around and said, "Look what you have done to this place. You have torn up your piano, torn down your desks, and broken out your windows; you have almost taken the building apart. I have come to tell you I love you and I'm going to teach you. I am your next teacher." From that day until school was out everything was peaceful, quiet, and as it should have been. That was one of his good schools. He had no problems while he was there.

Obediah taught his first school in 1894, and received $49.00 for it. He married one of his pupils, Viola Roberts. He was twenty four and she was twenty-one years of age. Viola Roberts was born 16 March 1874, and died 26 January 1956. Issue:

Coat of Arms

Shield - Sable on a chevron between three millpicks argent as many mullets gules.

Crest - An eagle displayed ermine.

Motto - Custom rules the law.

Reference Source: Burke's General Armory

Sable (black) This color imports wisdom, riches, prudence, honesty. The chevron is of a pyramidal form placed in the middle of the shield, extending upward from the Dexter Base to the Honor point. The chevron is said to imply that the bearer has accomplished some memorable work.

Argent: means silver metal.

Gules: Red is a royal color.

The colors are red and black.

A coat of arms was originally to make a man more easily recognized on the field of battle.

Robeson County
Lumberton, N. C.
March 10, 1949

I, Kate Biggs, of Robeson County, Lumberton, North Carolina, do hereby certify that the following marriage Bonds are recorded in the Register of Deeds Office, in the Court House at Lumberton, N.C. in the first marriage bond book which is stored in the safe in the above named office:

Page 32 - Elias Carlisle to Margaret Shanks - April 22, 1820

Page 32 - James Carlisle, Sr. to Elizabeth Powell - April 7, 1858

I certify, further that recorded in Robeson County, Lumberton, N. C. in Deed Book - B - Page 275 (Also found in Raleigh, N.C. Land Grant #1537 - Book 70, Page 352 - File #4402) a land deed or grant to Saunders Carlisle for 100 acres of land - on the South West side of the Ten Mile Swamp. This transfer was made May 18, 1789 and was signed by Governor Samuel Johnson of North Carolina.

I certify, also that the following Wills are recorded in the office of the Superior Court of Robeson County, Lumberton, N. C.:

- (1) Will Book 1 - page 52: Reuben Rozier's will dated 1798 named his heirs: William; William M....(?); Chas.; Robert; Martha; Shadrack; etc.
- (2) Will Book 1, page 210: Saunders Carlisle's will dated August 24, 1822 named his heirs; Wm.; John; James; Elias; Elizabeth Moore; Betsy Humphrey; Mary Carlisle; heirs of Catharine Humphrey; and wife, Elizabeth.
- (3) Will Book 2, page 168: James Carlisle's will dated September 27, 1859 and probated February Term of Court 1861 named heirs: William; John C.; Andrew J.; Mariah, wife of Simpson Rozier; Mary Ann, wife of Hugh Harrell; James; and Elizabeth, wife.

I certify, again, that on December 8, 1940 I went to the home of Mr. Johnny C. Carlyle, farmer of Robeson County, Lumberton, N. C. R.F.D. 2, then the oldest living member of the Carlyle family known by me, to check with him the history of the Carlyle family. Mr. Carlyle informed me that he was a son of Andrew J. Carlyle, a grandson of James Carlyle, and a great grandson of Alexander, better known as Sandy Carlyle - that his great grand father, Alexander Carlyle and Robert Carlyle, (brothers) lived in Robeson County when it was first formed from Bladen County, N.C. and that he had always been told that both the brothers above named served as patriots for the American cause in the Revolutionary War. He stated that Robert Carlyle went to Kentucky with Daniel Boone between 1787-90. Mr. Johnny C. Carlyle told me in 1940 that a portion of his farm land was granted to his ancestor, Alexander (Sandy) Carlyle. When I asked Mr. Carlyle if he knew who Alexander (Sandy) Carlyle's wife was before she married, he informed me that she was a Milley or Meally.

I certify further, that Mr. Carlyle told me that his grandfather, James Carlyle was married three times: first to Nancy Shanks, sister to Margaret Shanks who married Elias Carlyle (Sisters married brothers). He said the Blounts and Shanks were related. He informed me that after his grandmother, Nancy Shanks Carlyle, died his grandfather, James Carlyle married 2nd Anantha Blount, a kinswoman of his first wife, and a sister of William Blount. Mr. Johnny Carlyle said that he had been told that Amantha Lount Carlyle, 2nd wife of his grandfather, James Carlyle, lived only a few years and that shortly before his grandfather died he married third Elizabeth Powell, sister of Wm. Powell, and that his third wife survived him.

I certify, lastly, that Mr. Johnny C. Carlyle told me that the Carlyle name was sometimes written Carlisle - Carlile and Kerlile that he had always been told that his Carlyle ancestor came to America from England.

Kate Biggs
(Mrs. F. K.)

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 10 day of March 1949, witness my hand and official seal.

the line for the Quarter Circle Heart Ranch, began ranching for himself, and served as county clerk of Donley County. In 1887, with a stock of groceries and a portable building, he moved to Panhandle, in Carson County. He operated a drug business at Panhandle while serving eight years as postmaster. He was county treasurer of Carson County from 1896 to 1904. For twenty-one years he was cashier of the Panhandle bank, retiring in 1927 to go into the automobile business. He died at Panhandle on February 2, 1946.

BIBLIOGRAPHY: B. B. Paddock (ed.), A Twentieth Century History and Biographical Record of North and West Texas, I (1906).

Carhart, John Wesley. John Wesley Carhart, son of Daniel Sutton and Margaret (Martin) Carhart, was born on June 26, 1834. He was a college graduate in both theology and medicine. On October 6, 1857, he married Theresa Mumford; they became parents of seven children. In the 1870's the family moved from New York state to Racine, Wisconsin, where Dr. Carhart invented the automobile, an accomplishment later recognized by the American Manufacturer's Association. In 1885 Carhart moved to Texas to join his son, E. E. Carhart,^{qv} and a cousin, Lewis H. Carhart,^{qv} at Clarendon. From Clarendon J. W. Carhart moved to Lampasas, then to Austin, and finally to San Antonio, where he practiced medicine until his death on December 24, 1917.

Carhart, Lewis Henry. Lewis Henry Carhart, son of Isaac D. and Nancy (Bangs) Carhart, was born in 1833. He graduated from Northwestern University and the Garrett Bible Institute, was ordained a Methodist minister, and in 1866 was assigned on trial to the Arkansas Conference. In the 1870's he was in charge of a pastorate in Sherman, Texas. He became interested in immigration, made lectures for the State Immigration Board, and was particularly desirous of promoting immigration into the Texas Panhandle.

Carhart and a fellow minister, W. A. Allen, advertised in Sherman and in the Middle West for colonists and then went by way of Dodge City and Mobetie to the Panhandle. In May, 1878, they chose a colony site which they named Clarendon in honor of Carhart's wife, the former Clara Sully. In August, 1879, Carhart founded the Clarendon News. In 1880 he went back into the ministry in Dallas and left J. C. Murdock as his manager at Clarendon. After a pastorate in Fort Worth, Carhart retired from the Conference in 1883 and returned to the Panhandle and established the Quarter Circle Heart Ranch. In 1884 or 1885 he went to England to sell stock in the ranch which he renamed the Clarendon Land Investment and Agency Company. He resigned from the company and left Clarendon in 1887. After a temporary return to the ministry, he established a bath house in Hot Springs, Arkansas, in 1891. He died at Sattelle, California.

Carizzo Creek. Carizzo Creek, also known as Bayou Carrizo, rises in central Nacogdoches County seven miles northeast of the town of Nacogdoches and flows almost directly south into the Angelina River.

Carl, Texas. Carl, is an agricultural community in Navarro County between Corsicana and Rice on the Houston and Texas Central Railroad.

Carleton, William. William Carleton was born in Taunton, England, on May 7, 1812. After receiving a medical education, he married Elizabeth Martha Coxhead on August 1, 1833. With his wife, an infant, and three servants, he came to Texas in January, 1835. They remained in the little settlement which centered about Texana during the heated months just before the Texas Revolution. Alarmed by reports of military advances from Mexico, Carleton joined the Matagorda Volunteers in March.

At Goliad, which the colonists renamed Fort Defiance, a unit of the command was sent to attack the Mexican fort at Lipantitlan. Carleton performed valiant service in the attack. In the few days that the colonists stayed in the vicinity, some of the men slept in a shed filled with damp cotton, and from this Carleton developed a serious attack of inflammatory rheumatism, for which he was invalided back to Texana.

Late in 1836 Carleton and his wife went to New Orleans, and twenty years passed before they returned to Texas. Carleton worked for a time on Galveston and Houston papers but eventually settled in Austin. For his loyal services at Goliad, the Texas Legislature passed a special act which gave him the lands that were his soldier bounty. Selling the lands, Carleton bought presses and established his own weekly paper, called The Rambler.^{qv} Dr. Carleton died in Austin on November 2, 1865, and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery. He was survived by three sons and two daughters.

Carlisle, James M. James M. Carlisle, son of James M. and Mary Bird Carlisle, was born in Coffee County, Tennessee, on May 11, 1851. He received an M. A. degree from Emory College, Georgia, in 1879 and in January, 1880, opened a private school in Whitesboro, Texas. He was superintendent of schools at Corsicana from 1887 to 1889 and at Fort Worth from 1890 to 1891. He was elected president of the Texas State Teachers Association^{qv} in 1891 and on August 29, 1891, was appointed state superintendent of Public Instruction by James S. Hogg.^{qv} Sometime in the 1890's he established Carlisle Military Academy,^{qv} which eventually became Arlington State College.^{qv} Carlisle died at Arlington on July 14, 1922.

Carlisle, Texas. Carlisle (Lubbock County), west of Lubbock on the South Plains and Santa Fe Railway, was named for W. A. Carlisle, owner of much land in the area. Carlisle lost its school in the consolidation movement but had two stores in the 1940's and was known as the home of the largest vineyard in Northwest Texas.

Carlisle (Rusk County), eight miles southwest of Henderson, developed around a rural post office named Price for the J. M. Price family. After the discovery of oil in the area, the town of Carlisle developed and the post office was renamed for John Griffin Carlisle. A large school plant was built. Surrounding tank farms and refineries support the town which in 1940 had twenty businesses and a population of 750.

Carlisle (Trinity County), on the Waco, Beaumont, Trinity, and Sabine Railroad, was named for Barron Carlisle, an early settler. In 1947 the farming community was a school and church center and had a population estimated at one hundred.

Carlisle Creek. Carlisle Creek rises in southern DeWitt County and flows eastward into the Guadalupe River. The stream was named for Henry Carlisle, an early settler in DeWitt County who built his home about two hundred yards from the stream. In the early days there was a great spring near the mouth of the creek. The spring, equipped with two buckets and a rope and pulley system, furnished water for many of the first inhabitants of the area. John H. Slaughter operated a water-powered mill on the creek in the 1850's.

Carlisle Military Academy. The Carlisle Military Academy was established by James M. Carlisle⁸⁷ at Arlington, Texas, in the 1890's and operated until 1913, when H. K. Taylor took over the plant and renamed it the Arlington Training School. The Training School eventually became Arlington State College.⁸⁷

Carlos, Texas. Carlos, on the Texas and New Orleans Railroad in western Grimes County, was originally a lumbering community and had a population of 150 in 1910, when Thomas Landley and W. G. Prescott operated sawmills and general stores. A post office opened by 1907 was replaced by rural delivery from Anderson about 1928. In 1940 Carlos had a school, one business, and a population of sixty.

Carlos Rancho, Texas. Carlos Rancho, on the San Antonio River where the old trail from Victoria crossed the river to Nuestra Señora del Refugio Mission,⁸⁸ was named for Carlos de la Garza who had a commissary, barrel house, smithy, and a double log cabin at the site. A Catholic church was built for the community, and a ferry was operated as early as the Texas Revolution. The Johnstone Gilliland family settled near the rancho in 1837 and were killed there in a Comanche⁸⁹ raid in 1840. Refugees from Goliad took shelter there at the time of the Rafael Vázquez and Adrian Wolf⁹⁰ invasions in 1842.

Carlow Creek. Carlow Creek rises in northern Crook County and flows northwest about six miles into Powell Creek.

Carlsbad, Texas. Carlsbad, on the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railroad in northwestern Tom Green County, was established sometime before 1924 and was originally called Hughes. The freight station serves a local pipe line and cattle shippers, and the post office serves the state hospital at Sanatorium. Carlsbad had three businesses and a population of six hundred in 1947.

Alice Gray Upchurch

Carlson, Texas. Carlson, trading center in eastern Travis County, was named for a pioneer family. A school was established in 1882 one-half mile south of the present site. In 1940 the village had two stores and a population of one hundred.

Carlton, Charles. Charles Carlton, son of Charles and Mary (Coveney) Carlton, was born in Wythorne, Kent County, England, on August 25, 1821. About 1836 he went to sea as a cabin boy. He left ship in New Brunswick in 1841 and went on to Nova Scotia, where he worked in shipyards and on farms until about 1846. After attending Horton Academy for four months, he left Canada and worked his way to Boston and to Fredonia, New York, where he worked as a farm hand and attended summer sessions of school until August 19, 1847, when a committee of Baptist ministers encouraged him to go into the ministry. Enabled by a friend to attend Bethany College, he secured his degree from that West Virginia institution in July, 1849. While in the college he became interested in the teachings of its president, Alexander Campbell, and joined the Disciples of Christ (Christian church) in May, 1849.

Carlton married Harriet Ann Taylor in 1851. At her death in 1861 he was left with four children. He later married Mrs. Sally Fry Abernathy. In 1852 Carlton moved to Springfield, Missouri, where he preached and established a school in which he taught until 1861, when he moved to Collin County, Texas. In the fall of 1862 he moved to Dallas, where he also organized a school and established the congregation which later became the Central Christian Church. In 1865, at the end of the Civil War, he decided to return to Springfield but proceeded no further than Kentuckytown, Texas, where he organized a school and taught until the fall of 1867, when he moved to Bonham, where he operated Carlton College.⁹¹ On May 31, 1868, he organized a congregation which became the First Christian Church of Bonham. He continued as minister of the church and president of the college until the time of his death on February 13, 1902.

Carlton, Texas. Carlton, in northwestern Hamilton County in an area settled in the early 1870's, was first called Charlton for the founders, F. M. Charlton and Samuel F. Charlton, the name being shortened when the post office was granted about 1900. In 1900 Carlton had a population of 161; businesses included a cotton gin and a boot shop. By 1910 a bank had been organized and population was 750. The village was a station on the Stephenville, North, and South Texas Railway from 1909 to 1940, when the line was abandoned. A population of four hundred was reported in 1940.

Carlton College. Carlton College, established by Charles Carlton⁹² at Kentuckytown, Texas, in 1865 or 1866, was moved to Bonham in 1867. At first the school was held in a building also occupied by the Masonic lodge, but complications arose so that Carlton provided his own plant. In 1887 the college became a girls' school. Because Carlton was a Christian minister, the college was recognized as a church school, although there was no financial or legal connection. Being a family school, with the wife, son, and daughters forming the teaching staff, the college declined after the death of the founder in 1902. In 1913 the school joined with Carr-Burdette College⁹³ in Sherman, but this effort was abandoned in 1916, and the graduates of Carlton College were adopted into the alumni fellowship of Texas Christian University.⁹⁴

In the extreme north, near the Jones County line, was the settlement of CARLISLE'S MILL. It was named for the owner of the land, JOHN CARLISLE, who in 1853 sold this property to HUGH McDONALD. The name was then changed to McDonald's Mill. McDonald was born in Perry County in 1831, was a wealthy slave owner, and one of the first legislators from the county. He also served as probate judge and clerk of the county court. His wife was postmistress of Carlisle's Mill before the War between the States, and a charter member of the McDonald Mill Presbyterian church. After Hugh McDonald's death, this property, including residence, grist mill, gin, and all machinery was sold to Mrs. L. E. MORRISON, and the place became known as Morrison. (1)

A steam saw-mill, cotton gin, and grist mill were installed, a store established, and Mr Morris was appointed first postmaster. (2)

Other early settlers were LOUIS YARN, JOHN PARKER, VINCE REYNOLDS, the MORRIS and McCOMB families. Francis Marion Morris was a member of the board of supervisors in Augusta, and was acting as chairman when Perry County was divided. It was through his suggestion the new county was named Forrest. (3)

BEAUMONT was named in 1900 for Beaumont, Texas, by John McCoy, whose attention was attracted there by the oil boom.

Dear Sir:-

I have the honor to request the Military record of J.W. Carlile,, who is reported to have enlisted in Company "I"
Regiment 35th Texas Cavalry, under Capt. Mullins, in service in the Confederate States Army.

Very respectfully,

WASHINGTON April 9, 1929.

Respectfully returned to

Comptroller,
State of Texas,
Austin, Texas.

There are no muster rolls on file for Co. I, 35th. Texas Cav., C.S.A., (Liken's Regt.) and no record has been found of the service, capture or parole of J. W. Carlile, as of that organization.

W. H. Mullins was Captain of the company.

The records show that one Joe — Carlisle, (also borne as Jacob W. Carlisle and J. W. Carlile) who enlisted at Camp Crump, served in Co. C, 32nd. Texas Cav., C.S.A.

C. H. Bridges,
Major General,
The Adjutant General.
By He.

April 10, 1939.

Mrs. Nellie Carlile,
Shepherd, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Carlile:

I have on file your application for Confederate pension and in reply to my request to the War Department, Washington, D. C., for the service record of your deceased husband, J. W. Carlile as a Confederate soldier, I have the following report:

"There are no muster rolls on file for Co. I, 55th Texas Cav. U. S. A., (Liken's Regt.) and no record has been found of the service, capture or parole of J. W. Carlile, as of that organization.

W. H. Mullins was captain of the company.

The records show that one Jag. Carlisle, (also borne as Josh W. Carlisle and J. W. Carlile) was enlisted at Camp Grump, served in Co. E, 12th Texas Cavalry, U. S. A."

Since it appears from this record that there are no rolls or reports on file of Company I, 55th Texas Cavalry, which Company was under Captain W. H. Mullins, as you state in your application, it will be necessary before your application may be approved that you make proof of the military service of Mr. Carlile by the testimony of at least two credible witnesses who personally know he belonged to the army and rendered the service claimed, or if you cannot furnish the testimony of two witnesses, you will be permitted to prove this service by documents or other evidence that you may be able to furnish.

If the military service of Mr. Carlile can be proven, as required by the statute, your application will have further consideration.

Yours very truly,

Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Mr. S. H. Terrell, Comptroller
Austin, Texas.

Kind Sir:

I have just recieved a letter from Mrs Mollie Carlile, asking me to write to you.

I will say that I have been acquainted with Mrs Carlile for a number of years. She is the mother of a number of children. Some of which is forty or fifty odd years old, and I am aware of the fact that James Carlile was her husband. He and I chummed together as boys, before the war. We served in the war together. In fact we messed together, and I feel sure that Mrs Carlile is entitled to a pension, under the act approved of March the fifth, as he had been drawing a pension of eight dollars ($8.00) per month. Twenty four dollars ($24.00) a quarter for several years prior to his death.

Mr. Lon A. Smith was comptroller at the time of Carlile's death, which occurred in January of 1922. So you might confer with Mr. Smith and get some information. I know of no other person living that was a member of Likens' Regiment, and as I am sure Mrs Carlile is a deserving lady and needs help, it will be quite a favor to me if you can help her out in having her papers approved.

So with best wishes to you and yours. I am

yours truly,
Mr. M. Plaster

Mrs Carlile might have been drawing a pension since her husband's death, if she had have been disposed to storried a little, as I expect some of the widows did. She would only have stated that she had been married prior to sixty one, to have obtained her pension. No body would have been the wiser, as they knew nothing of her age. And I guess she looks older than she really is. So I guess she had scruples about telling a lie. There fore has recieved no benifit so far.

Dear Mrs Strickland,

I will try to answer your Query in the Miss Gene, Exchange. You asked who was the town Matherville in Wayne co was named after. I was told it was named after Dr T.L. Mather father but no one new what his name was. Dr T.L. family is buried in the Cemetery their in Matherville.

There is a history of Wayne Co telling about the towns and how they got their names. I can read it to see what it has for Matherville for a fee of $5.00. It is not index so I will have to read the comeplete history to see what their is about Matherville.

If I can be of further help to you on the Miss records let me know.

Sincerely,

H.H. Daniel

Dear Mr. Strickland,

I am afraid I have not researched Wayne Co. Miss. I have done much research on the Carlisle family of Lawrence Co. and Marion Co. Miss. My daughter-in-law was a Carlisle. Her grandmother still lives in Marion Co. so we have visited the cemetery where all of her people are buried.

The 1820 census of Lawrence Co. shows:

Benjamin Carlisle alone age 16 to 18

* James Carlisle 26-45 with 2 children under 10
I believe this James is the ancestor we need.

The 1830 census of Lawrence Co. shows:

Thomas Carlisle 40-60

James Carlisle 20-40

John B. Carlisle 20-40

By 1840 James had 7 sons

In 1840 John B. had 12 sons

William Carlisle and young wife had no children in 1840

J. M. Carlisle 20-30 had one son under 5

In 1850 John B. Carlisle was 56 b. M.C.
wife Elizabeth was 58 b. Ga.

5 sons ages 7-19

The elder James Carlisle apparently died before 1850.
William W. Carlisle was deceased in July 1849.

* Our Matthew H. Carlisle was born in Miss. 1 Dec. 1820 we do not know for sure but it seems likely that he was a son of James Carlisle who was born either

Carlisle James 89
in north or South Carolina. If he¹ were a brother of John B. Carlisle, he was probably born in the 1790s. I have searched in Atlanta, Columbia, S.C., and Lawrence Co.
Miss. but do not know for sure where his father was born since Matthew H. died
3 June 1876.

I have the service record of one James Carlisle of S.C. He was born in 1763 at Moreingham Co. Ireland and died 9 April 1842 at Abbeville, S.C. He served in the Rev. under his brother Lt. Francis Carlisle. His children are listed - John b. 1782 - too old for John B.
of Miss.

With more than 20 Carlisle boys in Lawrence Co. ¹⁸⁴⁰ it is no wonder that some made it down to Perry or Jones counties.
None of my notes give information on your Alford. Sorry!

Do you have access to the Quaker books re Bucks County, Pa.? Their records are so good. All county records are in Jackson, Miss.
Archives but I did not know that so went to Lawrence Co.
Please note my change of address.

yours truly,

Mary Sewell Hays

Anthony Carlisle

Anthony Carlisle has worked as the line cook for Mama's Kitchen in Moss Point for about five years. He usually cooks for breakfast and lunch and is known for his omelets. Anthony has been cooking since he was 16 in restaurants from short order to fine dining. "I love it. I couldn't think of doing anything else." He says he enjoys taking a dish from scratch to a finished meal and loves "seeing something that I made that people can enjoy." He works full time at the restaurant to support his wife, Caroline, and their children, Katherine, Jacob, Rachel and David. When not at work he says he loves spending all his free time with his family at the park or the beach.
